Entered as Second-Class Matter at Post Office, Washington, D. C.

Vol. 53, No. 27

The George Washington University, Washington, D. C.

April 16, 1957

Tuition Rises Next Fall In University

• A GENERAL INCREASE in the price of tuition is scheduled for every school of the University, effective next September 1.

Undergraduate courses now costing $17 a credit hour will cost $18.

Courses in engineering now $18 a credit hour will be raised to $20.

Law courses now $19 a credit hour will be raised to $20.

The Medical School course now costing $900 a year will cost $950. The rise in tuition balances the rise in maintenance and operating expenses at the University, officials said last week.

The additional funds will be placed in the general University fund. Plans are to use them to raise the salaries of the administrative and teaching staffs.

Spring Brings Annual Beards

• THE TRADITIONAL Spring beard-growing contest, prelude to the All-University Shipwreck Ball sponsored by Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity, will be judged April 25 at 8 p.m. at the fraternity house. The ball will be held April 27 at the Hyattsville Armory, with doors opening at 9 p.m.

Beard-growing contest judges will be Joanne Holler, Miss District of Columbia; Jack Eisen, reporter for the Washington Post and Times Herald and journalism instructor at the University; Bruce Mencher, winner of the whisker championship in both

Gate & Key

• GATE AND KEY will hold its next meeting this Wednesday at the Sigma Chi house at 9 p.m.

1955 and 1956; John R. Mason, University librarian and curator of art, and Donald C. Kline, professor of art.

Contest prizes include a Remington electric razor for the first place winner, second and third place awards and a consolation prize for the "best try." The nineteenth annual Shipwreck Ball will feature the music of Tom Miller's band, the crowning of a Shipwreck Queen, and a drawing for a winning raffle ticket.

The All-University dance has no admission charge.

Med School Gives Admission Exam

• THE MEDICAL COLLEGE Admission test will be given May 11. Students planning to enter medical school in the fall of 1958 have been advised by the Association of American Medical Colleges to take the test next month. Deadline for application for the examination is April 27.

Application blanks and information booklets concerning the test are available in the office of the Junior College. The examination is administered by the Educational Testing Service of Princeton, New Jersey.

The admissions test consists of a measure of general scholastic ability, a test of the prospective medical students' understanding of modern society and an achievement test in science.

All applications must reach the Educational Testing Service office in Princeton by the April 27 deadline.

Hatchet Meeting

• THE HATCHET STAFF will meet at 7:30 p.m. tonight in the conference room of the Student Union annex.

Cruise Schedules Games, Contests

• THE S.S. MT. VERNON will embark on the annual all-University Colonial Cruise to Marshall Hall at noon May 4.

Establishing the Cruise's Latin American theme, the University Pep Band will play for dancing on the boat ride down. Athletic chairmen Bob Jewett and Bill Tomoykowski and their committee will organize softball and volleyball games.

The Mt. Vernon will reach Marshall Hall at 2:30. The afternoon's program includes the softball and volleyball games, picnicking and horseshoes, team sack races, three-legged races and an egg throwing contest.

A special dancing contest and program is planned by Marty Zipern and his entertainment committee. The entertainment will also include a student skit on a Latin American theme and an act written, produced and directed by the faculty.

A mambo contest will climax the program. The show will close with a general square dance, with Tom Pence as caller.

Special arrangements have been made for alumni and faculty members with children. Mallo Kobashvili and Jack Purinton head the committee of baby-sitters. Games and entertainment for the youngsters will feature the crowning of a king and queen of the Cruise.

Boats will leave to return to Washington at 5 p.m. and 10 p.m. A dance band will play on the 10 p.m. moonlight ride.

Pépita Lassalle and Ed Rutsch are overall co-chairmen of the Cruise. Al Porter and Bill De La Verne are publicity chairmen; Jim Lay, budget director; Bob Lipman, faculty relations chairman and Pat Kallis, ticket sales committee head.

Girls To Pick 'May Queen'

• PRELIMINARY VOTING for the 1957 May Queen will be held Friday, April 26.

The polls in front of the Student Union will be open from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m., noon to 1:30 p.m., and 5 to 6:30 p.m. All women students in the University are eligible to vote. Each student must present her activities book signed in ink, before voting.

Pictures of all the candidates will be posted near the voting

Debate Tourney

• TWO FRESHMAN DEBATE teams will compete in the Grand National Forensic Tournament at Mary Washington College in Fredericksburg, Virginia, Thursday and Friday. Debating affirmatively will be Judy Jaffe and Viris Cromer. Taking the negative side will be Tim Mead and Charles Landon.

booth, along with a list of each girl's school activities.

The three candidates receiving the highest number of votes will become finalists, and will be announced in the following week's HATCHET. Final voting will take place in front of the Union on Friday, May 3. The same hours will apply.

Candidates for the annual Activities Queen are the senior women selected for "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities" last fall. They are Beverly Alexander, Beverly Borden, Carolyn Cronin, Carol Dalton, Frances Bran Feldman, Karin Floyd and Joan Duke Gates.

Also, Rosalind Hawk, Roberta Holland, Charlene McDonald King, Bette Kolonia, Phyllis Mignone, Sandra Shoemaker and Nancy Wilson. See page 4 for brief rundown on the major activities of the candidates.

Voting chairman is Gregg Mayer. Assisting her with the voting are Morna Campbell, queens' chairman and Bernie Fasseltiner, publicity director of the Student Council.

Council Petitioning Closes on April 26

Rules Control Campaigning

• PETITIONS FOR ELECTIONS must be submitted before 5 p.m., Friday, April 26, according to Jerry Reinsdorf, Student Council Advocate.

Advocate Reinsdorf has also released election rules. Mr. Reinsdorf stressed that the rules must be strictly adhered to, and that violators are liable to disqualification.

Campaigning

Campaigning will be limited to: A. the north side of G street between 21st st. and west end of Monroe Hall; B. the north side of G st. between 22nd st. and the east end of sorority hall; C. the campus area behind Monroe Hall.

Campaigning must be limited to the following periods: Wednesday, May 1: before 9:10 a.m.; 10:00 a.m. to 10:10 a.m.; 11:00 a.m. to 11:10 a.m.; 12:00 p.m. to 1:10 p.m.; 2:00 p.m. to 6:10 p.m.; 7:00 p.m. to 7:10 p.m., and 8:00 p.m. to 8:10 p.m.

Campaigning on Thursday, May 2 will be limited to: before 8:45 a.m.; 10:00 a.m. to 11:10 a.m.; 12:25 p.m. to 2:10 p.m.; 5:00 p.m.

Help Wanted!

The Activities Director of the Student Council needs three able-bodied young men to work on the May Day stage crew. The work will take two to three hours, Thursday and Friday, April 2 and 3. Leave names with Jane Rosenberger in the Office of Women's Activities before April 26.

to 8:15 p.m.; 7:15 p.m. to 8:15 p.m., and 8:45 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Money

No more than $35 may be spent for the campaign by any candidate, says Mr. Reinsdorf. This amount includes donations, and an estimated budget must be submitted to the Student Activities office by Monday, April 29.

Expenditures for advertising in the HATCHET must not exceed $10, says Mr. Reinsdorf. No campaign material may be placed in classrooms. Violators of these rules will be prosecuted before the Student Council and disqualified if found guilty.

No campaign material may be placed or attached on trees. Regulation size posted (11x14) may be placed on University bulletin boards on Monday, April 29, after approval of the Business office.

Candidates

There will be a meeting of all candidates on Friday, April 26 at 6 p.m. in the conference in the Student Union annex.

At present, the Student Elections committee is forming. Charged with supervising the conduct of the elections, members man the voting booth, coordinate motorcades, survey campaigning and report alleged violations to the Advocate.

Among the members of the committee are Bobby Holland and Ernest Auerbach, members of the HATCHET Board of Editors.

Jobs Present Varied Duties

• PETITIONING IS OPEN for the 1957-58 Student Council.

Prospective Council members may apply between now and 5 p.m., April 26, in the student activities office in the Student Union annex.

Last week a HATCHET article outlined the duties of the Council president, vice president, comptroller and advocate. This week's

Co-Chairmen

• CO-CHAIRMAN OF the 1957 Homecoming weekend are Carole Hesse and Dick Cook. The newly chosen co-chairmen have named Eldon Miller as sub-chairman in charge of alumni participation.

article covers duties and responsibilities of other positions on the Student Council.

The member-at-large represents the Council on special projects. His duties depend largely on his own interest and enthusiasm. He is in charge of the Apple Blossom Festival princess contest and he handles student tickets for local theatres and concerts.

The Council publicity director manages bulletin boards and cabinets, keeping them up to date and obtaining times and approvals from the student activities office. He is in charge of publicity for the Colonial Program series and other Council-sponsored events, assists University organizations and projects, such as the Colonial Boosters and the Career Conference, with the publicity.

The program director has heavy duties during the summer, when he schedules the Colonial Program series. He heads his own committee, arranging for the performance, auditorium and program sequence. He must make many personal contacts, including those with the U. S. Air Force Band, the department of religion, Colonial Boosters, the Career Conference committee and the May Day committee.

The freshman director also has a great deal of summer work. He aids the editor of the Student Handbook, plans the fall orientation program, and directs the freshman orientation dance and the winter Activities Fair. He has close contact with Big Sis, Phi Eta Sigma, Alpha Lambda Delta, Old Men and other groups especially active in the first week of school. During the spring semester he meets with student leaders and faculty members to set up the entire schedule for the following year's orientation program.

The activities director serves as chairman of May Day, appointing all committee heads for the event. He is in charge of the Council's summer social functions, which customarily include three dances, and the year schedule of Student Union social dances. He handles faculty relations, music, decorations and publicity.

The Student Union chairman heads the Student Union board, presiding at its weekly meetings and making reports to the Council. He enforces the Student Union rules and handles suggestions and complaints. He recommends assignment of rooms in the Student Union annex, works with the manager of the University bookstore, coordinates the student club dances and works for the improvement of the entire Student Union program.

Dean Welcomes Laborites

... Gathered at a welcoming ceremony for a group of 25 young French labor leaders now studying at the University are (left to right) Yves Coste, a member of the group; O. S. Colclough, dean of faculties; Antoinette Invernizzi, another member of the French party, and Arnold Zempel, director of the Labor Department's office of international labor affairs. The 25-member delegation, selected by American officials in France, arrived April 5 to begin a fourteen-week course of study of the labor movement in the U. S.

Both Law, Religion Act As Guides of Conduct

• THOMAS J. JACKSON, Washington attorney and University graduate, addressed the Westminster Foundation last Thursday on the topic "Religion in the Practice of the Law."

Mr. Jackson advocated that Christians shape their conduct on a pragmatic basis in the absence of the absolute knowledge of what is right.

'Peace' Contest Sets April 30 As Deadline

• DEADLINE FOR SUBMITTING essays for the Alexander Will-bourne Weddell prize contest is April 30, the awards committee announced last week.

Any degree candidate in the University is eligible. A prize of $350 is awarded for the best essay on the general subject of "the promotion of peace among the nations of the world."

Members of the awards committee are Dr. William C. Davis, associate professor of Latin American history, Dr. Wilson E. Schmidt, assistant professor of economics, and Dr. Robert H. Moore, associate professor of English composition.

Minimum length of essays is 3000 words. All essays are to be accompanied by a table of contents and a bibliography. Each contestant should attach to his essay a sealed envelope containing his name, address, telephone number, school or division and the title of the essay.

"Law," he declared, "is a guide to human conduct which, a group has concluded, will best suit the largest number of people to which it applies." He made clear the sharply limited role of the lawyer in presenting the evidence most favorable to his client, never usurping the function of the opposing lawyer or that of the jury.

Thus he said he would have no qualms about advising a man who had confessed his guilt to him privately to plead not guilty in court. "For," he stated, "no man has a duty to condemn himself. It is rather the duty of the court to prove him guilty."

Faith in System

Mr. Jackson expressed great faith in our system of justice. In his experience, he said, he has found that the jury correctly evaluates the evidence 99 times out of 100.

In enlarging on the dual function of the lawyer as a technical specialist and as a personal adviser to his clients, Mr. Jackson asserted that in the latter role he could find scope for the practice or religion.

Legally Justified

"For instance," he said, "there may be cases where man is legally justified in requiring the fulfillment of a contract but where I, as a man, would consider it my duty to advise him not to exercise his legal right."

Mr. Jackson concluded by saying that the real satisfaction of a lawyer's life is in helping others, and that it is the cases for which he does not accept fees which he feels most fully repay him.

Comedy to Highlight Follies' Mock Tryouts

• PROGRAM PLANS WERE announced this week for the annual All-University Follies, to be held May 15 in Lisner auditorium.

The Follies, the third dramatic presentation of the year, will be planned around mock try-outs for a Broadway musical.

1957 May Day To Take Place May 3

• THE UNIVERSITY'S annual May Day program will be presented Friday May 3 in Lisner auditorium.

Based on a court theme paying homage to the newly-elected May Queen, the program will begin at 8:30 p.m. The curtain will open on a grand ball scene, which will feature members of the royal court in a waltzing sequence. The waltz will be accompanied by the Glee Club. Following the waltz will be the announcement of the 1957 May Queen, and the entrance of the Queen and her court. They will be escorted by the male members of Who's Who and the Student Council. Joe Hince, Student Council president, will crown the queen.

Several more numbers, including a traditional May pole dance by members of the Dance Production group, will complete the musical portion of the program. Bob Dolson and Clayton Chadwell, in the guise of royal court jesters, will emcee.

Highlighting the remainder of the program will be the announcement of Student Council election results. Also included in the evening's schedule of events are the announcement of HATCHET and Cherry Tree editors for the coming year and tappings for three honoraries—Mortar Board, Omicron Delta Kappa and the Order of Scarlet.

Activities prizes, Student Council certificates of appreciation and various individual awards will also be made.

Chairman of the traditional spring program is Doris Rosenberg, Student Council activities director. Assisting her as sub-chairmen are Meredith Eagon and Ruth Reagan, program co-chairmen; Elva Schroeber, invitations chairman; Morna Campbell, queen's chairman; and Gregg Mayer, voting chairman.

Decor is being planned by Prof. Donald C. Kline, executive officer of the art department. Miss Elizabeth Burthner, professor of modern dance, is doing the choreography for the dance sequences. Program director is Ed Ferero, managing director of University dramatics.

Seniors Compete For Speech Prizes

• THE ISAAC DAVIS public speaking contest will be held May 6 at 8:30 p.m. in studio-A of Lisner auditorium.

Open annually to University seniors, the contest offers prizes of $25 for first place, $20 for second place and $15 for third place.

Only senior candidates for bachelor of arts or bachelor of science degrees are eligible to compete. Their speeches, unrestricted in subject, should be from six to eight minutes in length.

The extemporaneous orations should be generally persuasive in nature. The only notes allowed the speaker will be quoted material, which should not make up more than ten per cent of the total speech.

Senior speakers may apply by noon May 3 in the speech department in Lisner auditorium.

Art Club Names Contest Winners

• THE UNIVERSITY ART club has announced winners in the ninth annual art show, and their entries went on display in the University library last Friday.

In the category of oil painting, first award went to Odell Wooten for "Place of the Gods," second award went to Alyse Koylan for "The Return" and honorable mention went to Jack Martinelli for "Eastern Air."

In the category of water color,

Dr. Supervia

• DR. RAFAEL SUPERVIA, associate professor of Spanish, will speak on "In Defense of Idealism" at a meeting of Alpha Theta Nu, scholarship holders' service organization, at 7:30 to-night in Woodhull C.

first place winner was Audrey Marie Pool for "Vodka" and second prize winner was Dorothy E. Harris for "Faith."

The first award in the category of graphics went to Jean Clare Schultz for "Alexandria Marina" and second award went to John O'Mara for "Occoquan River."

Don Turano, for his entry, "Water Carrier," received first award in the sculpture division. The second award went to Virginia Wilson for "Mother and Child" and honorable mention went to Adele M. Kennedy for "Standing Figure."

The exhibition will continue through May 5. The art show is open to students from the University and from Corcoran School of Art. It is sponsored annually by the Art club.

British Offer Scholarships

• TWELVE MARSHALL scholarships at British universities are offered annually to American graduate students.

Established as a gesture of thanks for U. S. Marshall Plan aid, the scholarships offer 550 pounds annually, with 200 additional pounds for married men. The scholarships are tenable at any university in the United Kingdom. They cover two years of study but may be extended for a third year. Marshall scholars receive transportation to and from Britain.

Candidates must be under 28 years of age on October 1 of the year in which the award is granted. They must be graduates of a degree-granting college or university in the United States.

Engineers To Honor Outstanding Students

• THE PRESENTATION OF awards to outstanding students will follow the annual engineers' banquet to be held May 4 at 7 p.m. at Arlington Towers.

Theta Tau, engineering fraternity, will present an award to the outstanding senior in engineering. Sigma Tau, engineers' honorary, will recognize the outstanding freshman engineering student.

Earl Reber and John Manning will receive awards from the Institute of Radio Engineers; Joe Greblunes and Albert Pinto from the American Institute of Electrical Engineers; Richard Rumke from the American Society of Civil Engineers, and Morrow Moore from the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

The banquet and ball to follow are open to the entire student body, according to Howard Davis, president of the Engineers' Council.

Women's Groups Make Scrapbooks

• WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS AT the University are participating in a new scrapbook project, sponsored by Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, and the office of women's activities.

The project is designed to publicize campus groups and to serve as a source of program ideas for all women's organizations. It is headed by Rosalind Hauk, Mortar Board member.

Scrapbook materials are provided by the women's activities office. Deadline for completion of the books is tomorrow. The three most outstanding entries will be selected by Mortar Board, and judges will select one best book from the three finalists. The winning group will be announced at the May Day program, and its name will be engraved on a special plaque to be hung in the Big Sis lounge of Woodhull house.

What Will YOU Do This Summer?

We Recommend That You Consider Work As A Camp Counselor!

WHY? Because ....

1. Counseling is more than just a job. It is an opportunity for professional experience in preparation for teaching, group work, social work, counseling, etc.
2. It is one of the few chances to combine work with out-of-door living and recreation.
3. The American Camping Association has done so much to raise the standards of camping; so that it promises excellent working conditions.
4. As in teaching, the children of America need the best of our leadership. You have a chance to serve in the best sense of the word.

Prom Failure

• THE SENIOR PROM, April 6, was a beautiful dance and should be continued, but the dance was a financial and attendance failure.

The majority of those attending the dance were Independents, so at first glance it looks as though the Greeks, always counted on to support activities, did not come through for the dance. However, publicity for the dance did not really reach a peak until two weeks before the dance. Many Greek groups had long planned events for the sixth, and when publicity broke, it was too late to cancel these plans. Credit should go to the Independents, but sole blame cannot be laid to the Greeks. The Student Council, regulator of activities, usually plugs activities under its supervision, but even though both the Senior Prom chairmen are members of the Council, the Council let down on its publicity. The price of $5 per couple sounded high until one learned that set-ups and dinner for two was included; facts underplayed by the Prom committee.

The basic fault, however, lies not with the Prom committee, but with the crowded calendar of events. With too many events, none can achieve its attendance potential. A listing of All-University events from the last week of March through the week end of the Senior Prom includes the Ball of Fire, March 30; the Career Conference, April 3; International Night, April 5; and the Senior Prom, April 6. Certainly many private groups held their own functions, adding many-fold to this list.

There is no excuse for so many events to fall within a one-week's period of time. None can achieve the success it attains to. The Student Council's prime function is to regulate the yearly calendar of events. In the future, the Council should remember its regulatory function in the supervision of campus activities.

The Senior Prom is a good idea, and should be given another chance. This year, the Prom never had a chance.

May Queen Chosen On Activities Basis

• WITH PRELIMINARY voting for the 1957 May Queen less than two weeks away, it is time to start considering each candidate's qualifications.

The May Queen is elected on the basis of activities, and is the University's annual activities queen. She is crowned at the traditional May Day program and reigns over the festivities. All candidates, by being elected to Who's Who last fall, have already proven their eligibility for the competition. It is up to the women students of the University to choose the best qualified candidate for the title. (See Page 1 story for voting details.) A brief summary of each girl's contributions to campus activities may help the voters in deciding upon their choice:

Candidates Include Queen

Sorority President

Also Frances Bran Feldman: Phi Sigma Sigma president, Mortar Board, Hillel president, HATCHET

senior staff; Karin Floyd: Sigma Kappa president, Women's Athletic Association, Delphi; Joan Duke Gates: Kappa Delta, Mortar Board, 1955-56 Student Council activities director, Colonial Boosters president; Rosalind Hawk: Phi Beta Kappa, Mortar Board treasurer, Big Sis president; Roberta Holland: Kappa Kappa Gamma treasurer, Phi Beta Kappa, Mortar Board secretary, HATCHET Board of Editors, Music Committee.

Weekend Co-chairman

Finally, Phyllis Mignone: President Kappa Delta, 1956 Winter Weekend co-chairman, Delphi; Sandra Shoemaker: Kappa Kappa Gamma president, Mortar Board president, 1956-57 Student Council Columbian College representative, Delphi president; and Nancy Wilson: Pi Beta Phi treasurer, 1956-57 Student Council School of Education representative, Cherry Tree Greeks editor.

Kathy Proves Women CAN Handle Money

by Elva Lee Schroebe

• WHO SAYS women can't handle money? Anyone with such a false opinion should meet Kathy Denver, who spends every afternoon in the Cashier's Office handling the University's money and who also demonstrated her abilities along these lines in 1955-56, when, as Student Council comptroller, she handled all the Student Council's money.

"Being comptroller was really a wonderful experience," says Kathy. "You learn so much about the workings of the various organizations on campus and it makes you a member ex-officio of a lot of committees," she adds in a flat, well modulated voice with an accent that has been placed "anywhere from Maine to North Carolina by various people."

...New Panhel Proxy

"But," says Kathy, with an accent that sounds very much like the Massachusetts "park the car," type, "I come out with some words that mark me distinctly as being from no other place than Brooklyn, New York."

What brought her down to Washington for college was Washington. "I'd always wanted to live in Washington for a while," she says. But what kept her here was the University. "After my first year, I just loved it. I'd never change."

Kathy is a member of Kappa Delta sorority, and served last year as its president. "Thank goodness that's over," she says. "What a job that was!" This year she was elected by her sorority to fill the rotating presidency of Pan Hel. Asked what kind of a job that is, she replies, "I'm just beginning to find out."

A two-year member of the Student Council, Kathy's second term on the Council this year as program chairman—runs out this May. "That's an interesting job," she says, "but it's so hard to coordinate the schedule with all the many things going on!"

Kathy was co-chairman of the Campus Combo Committee last year, secretary of the Inter-Sorority Athletic Board, and has been a Big Sis and a Flying Sponsor in her four years at the University.

A senior now, she will graduate next February. She's not quite sure as to just what she'll do with her business administration major, but her plans definitely include a trip to California.

Living only a block from the Phi Sig house, it's natural that she should spend most of her party time there, especially since she got pinned last New Year's Eve to Phi Sig Bill Holt.

Hypnosis Adds To Smoker's Troubles

• CINCINNATI, OHIO—(ACP)—This from the University of Cincinnati News Record's "Cruising on Campuses" column:

A Kansas State College freshman wanted to quit smoking. A doctor hypnotized him at a student assembly. The hypnotist told him he would be able to quit smoking because cigarettes would now taste like burnt rubber. The student was then released from the spell.

"I still have the habit," he has since remarked. "But that burnt rubber flavor annoys me!"

Foggy BOTTOM

by Hester Heale

• IT MUST BE SPRING! Strange things are happening. People are handing in items for this old gossip column.

It was a big week-end for the SAE's as they held their annual Spring Formal Saturday night at the Washington Golf and Country Club. The evening started with cocktails at the fraternity house, and then moved out to the country club for dinner, dancing and more cocktails. Some couples present included Bill Frank and Kathy Buas, Bob Madigan and Kathy Sellers, Neil Stull and Dee MacDonald, Carl Scrivener and Carol Dhondt, Jack Williams and DG Sally Paxton, Bill Tinley and Hildegard Garrett, Bill Misch and Liz McGarry, Chuck Stanley and Kate Storey, and Bob Bono and Pi Phi Barbara O'Neill.

Not to be outdone, the Delta also held a big ball. The annual Rainbow Ball was held this year at the George Mason Hotel in Alexandria. A champagne, punch cocktail party preceded the dance, which was highlighted by the crowning of the Delt Queen of 1957. Lovely Theta Carol Hollet, escorted by Roger Hart, received the honor this year. Other couples seen party-partying included Dick Jamborsky and Pi Phi Pepita Lassalle, Sandy Morrison and Kappa Gail Itchner, Joe Allan and Alphi Phi Sally Cooper, Jay Howard and Kappa Ginnie Leech, Lanny Ormsby and DG Penny Reid, Bill Hix and Kappa Jeanne Barnes, Kylene Craven and KD Susie Smith, John Fisher and Ann Leon, Larry Boehly and Kappa Judy Jaudon, Larry Spellman and Gerry Wilson, Pete Dyer and KKG Eddie Clark, Jack Killian and Theta Betty Graves, Jay Randolph and Pi Phi Betty Gignilliat, and Dave Ettinger and DG Beth Oliver.

AEPI's this week acted as hosts for their regional conclave with members from the University of Penn, Temple, Md. U., Johns Hopkins, University of Delaware and Richmond in attendance.

Saturday night all the good brothers came together at the Hotel 2400 for a semi-formal dance. The weekend's festivities were topped off Sunday afternoon with a gala luncheon at the Occidental.

Kappa Sig held their annual spring formal last Saturday night too at the chapter house, with a spring time theme. Roy Dennis and Chi O Jan Swearingen, Bill Van Fleet and Theta Peggy Stubbs, Ernie Betts and Sue Hadley, Bob Stahl and DZ Tilli Mosesso, Bill Owens and Kappa Sarah Moses were among the many present. The evening also featured the crowning of the "Stardust Queen" on 1957.

Back on G Street, the Acacia spent their annual "Night on the Nile" in appropriate flowing garments. A king and queen were chosen to rule over the evening's festivities.

The Phi Sigs held a record party at their house Saturday, with each brother charged one record for admission. Pi Phi pledge Faye Motyka and Chuck Forbes, Jackie Webster and Jim Newheiser, Sigma Kappa Faye Calloway and Frank Morrison were among the many couples present, and scrambling about for balloons.

A rowdy party shook the rafters of the TEKE house last Saturday night and was highlighted by a chug-a-lug contest among Bill Dorsey, Hans Bode, John Hardison and John Henry. Rooting section included Roy Carver and ZTA Jean Fasset, and Jerry Roemer and Reggie, the fraternity mascot.

TEP's were feeling spring-like this past week end—to the point of having a bermuda party, however, the rest of the message was indiscernable. Must have been quite a party!

Pikes played host Friday night to the troubadours. Bruce Mencher at the piano, Doc Harmon directing—quite a blast.

Saturday night saw Al Dibbs and Carol Shubridge, Steve Chase and Beth Sandford, Joe Hince and Pi Phi Cece Le Stourgeon, Bernie Fassettiner and Pi Phi Betsy Evans, John Metalsky and Norma Noodle, Lee Jamison and Pi Phi Bonnie Borden gathered together for another Pike blast.

Big question around the Phi Alpha house these days is "When is Warner Wolf going to give up his night time escapades and start studying?"

At a recent Kappa-Sigma Chi coffee hour, Paul Welch was crowned "Sweetheart of KKG" complete with the standard vegetable corsage.

DG's and Pikes's got together recently for a coffee hour, with the good sisters of Delta Gamma providing many take-offs on worthy brothers of Pi Kappa Alpha. Nancy Bealle gave a take-off of Jack Jolly, Kitty Hyland of Jim Black, and Claire Picard of Moose Rutch.

SAE's are taking to the ancient college tradition of pinning these days. President Chris Catoe gave his pin to Kappa Sandy Reedy early last week, and at the Spring Formal Bill Misch got pinned to DG Liz McGarry and Chuck Stanley to Kate Storey. However, word has it, if Ed Crump lost his pin, it was in his glass.

Late flash from Sigma Nu: Dotie Harris was crowned Sigma Nu's belle of the frontier at the ball held last Saturday night at Burke, Va. And the good brothers were mixed up in a bunny hop up G Street. And so it goes. Tooodle.

• NOW THAT THE channels of communication between the United States and the Soviet Union have opened up somewhat, there is a strong chance that more publications from the country of the red star will make their appearance here.

Washington is especially vulnerable to foreign periodicals, what with the great number of diplomatic corps members that make their residence here. "U.S.S.R.," a Life-type magazine published in Moscow, broke onto the D.C. newsstands a few months ago, and dealers report that sales are making slow but steady progress. The United States retaliated with a magazine called "America," which is doing very well indeed in the Soviet Union; so it appears that in the battle of pica type and gothic condensed the U. S. government has achieved a substantial international victory.

Where all this will lead we can't say, but if the present trend continues, it may not be long before the more "liberal" rulers of the Soviet allow other publications to squeeze through the crack in the iron curtain.

Imagine a typical scene in Leningrad, in the home of Alexai Mikoloyevitch Graborsky, head foreman of a sixteen-gauge nut factory. Alexai and his wife, Nadoshka, are sitting in the living room of their modest half-room apartment, sipping their evening borscht. Alexai opens his briefcase and pulls out a dog-eared copy of "Fiend," the man's magazine for gay, carefree, devilishly inclined bachelors.

Nadoshka looks up from her embroidery, a tablecloth that once bore the image of a steel-eyed, black-mustached man and is now being redone into a Picasso dove. "What have you there, Alexai?"

"It is a magazine from America," says Alexai, but he says it in Russian. "I really can't understand it. There is not one story about tractors, or the levels of industrial production. Only pictures of women. They are crazy, these Americans."

Nadoshka gets up from her chair and walks behind her husband. She gasps and puts her hand to her mouth as he turns the pages.

Alexai shuts the magazine and jumps up from his seat. "I'm going out to burn this thing. This house is no place for it."

As soon as Alexai is out the door and on the street, he breaks into a run and rushes through the door of O'Malley's bar on Molotov Street (even in Russia, Irishmen run the taverns). "Hey, comrades," he yells to the small group of men at the corner table, look at this.

The men gather around as Alexai proudly turns the pages, very deliberately and with due caution.

"Wow!" cries out Mikolin Stefanovitch, "This is really hot stuff, sky!"

"You can say that again!" agrees Sasha Krubeyev.

"Tell me, Alexai," says Stefanovitch, "you are a man of some education. Are all American women this way?"

Alexai ponders for a moment. "Well, comrade, it would certainly appear to be so. I have seen many pictures in the magazines, and they all look like this."

"That settles it!" Stefanovitch shouts, slamming his hand on the table. "I'm trying out for the Olympics!"

At this moment, a man in a trench-coat walks into O'Malley's and shows his credentials. "You are all under arrest, comrades. Prepare to depart for Siberia."

Stefanovitch jumps up from the chair. "What do you mean, under arrest? The government is permitting the reading of these American magazines!"

The N.V.D. man shrugs his shoulders. "So who said anything about reading magazines? Comrades Stefanovitch and Krubeyev work in the Stalingrad coal mines,

Coeds Criticize Male Students' Appearance

• STORRS, CONN., (ACP)—Gentlemen, you're on the defensive. A female feature writer in the Connecticut Daily Campus has recently had this to say about the apparel of the average college male:

Male students on campus seem to dress mainly for convenience. It may be easier to get up in the morning and throw on an old shirt and a pair of khakis for your 8 o'clock class, and who has time to shave, you may say, but have you ever thought of the appearance you present to others? Here is what a cross section of coeds on campus think about it.

The ideal man wears clean, pressed khakis, a crew-necked sweater, and please boys, with a shirt under it. Our "hero" also has his hair combed, or at least resorts to the well-known alternative of getting a crew-cut, so that it won't show. To go on, he takes time to shave in the morning. ## VIDEO'S DELIGHT

The academic world has made its first tentative steps into television. A few lectures, a few seminars, but may I respectfully suggest that the academic world has not yet learned the full potential of television?

Why don't the colleges use television's vast capacity to dramatize, to amuse, to unshackle the imagination? Like, for example, this:

ANNOUNCER: Howdy, folks. Well, it's time again for that lovable, laughable pair, Emmett Twokey Magruder, Ph.D., and Felicia May Crimscott, M.A., in that rollicking, roistering fun show, American History 101.... And here they are, the team that took the "hiss" out of "history"—Emmett Twokey Magruder and Felicia May Crimscott!

"A funny thing happened to me on the way to my doctorate."

DR. MAGRUDER: Howdy, folks. A funny thing happened to me on the way to my doctorate. A mendicant approached me and said, "Excuse me, sir, will you give me 25 cents for a sandwich?" I replied, "Perhaps I will, my good man. Let me see the sandwich."

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Oh, how droll, Dr. Magruder! How piquant! How je ne sais quoi!... But enough of badinage. Let us get on with our rollicking, roistering fun show, American History 101.

DR. MAGRUDER: Today we will dramatize the taut and tingling story of John Smith and Pocahontas. I will play Captain Smith and Miss Crimscott will play Pocahontas.

ANNOUNCER: But first a message from our sponsor. ... Folks, have you tried a Philip Morris lately? Have you treated yourself to that good natural tobacco—zestful yet mild, hearty yet gentle, rich yet dulcet? Hmmm? Have you?... If not, light a Philip Morris soon. Light either end.... And now to our grim and gripping story. Picture, if you will, a still summer night. An Indian maid stands by a moonlit brook. Suddenly she hears a footstep behind her. She turns...

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Oh! John Smith! You-um startle-um me-um!

DR. MAGRUDER: Hello, Pocahontas. What are you doing down by the brook?

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Just washing out a few scalps. But what-um you-um want-um?

DR. MAGRUDER: I came to see the Chief.

MISS CRIMSCOTT: You-um can't-um. Chief is leaving for Chicago.

DR. MAGRUDER: On what track?

ANNOUNCER: And speaking of tracks, stay on the right track with Philip Morris—the track that heads straight for smoking pleasure, for fun, for frolic, for sweet content.... And now back to those two cool cats, Emmett Twokey Magruder and Felicia May Crimscott.

DR. MAGRUDER: Well, folks, that's all for today. See you next week, same time, same station.

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Stay tuned now for "William Cullen Bryant: Girl Intern."

ANNOUNCER: And remember, folks, each end of Philip Morris is ignitable. It's just good, rich, natural tobacco, any way you light it!

© Max Shulman, 1967

Any way you light it, it's great. Any way you like it—long size or regular—we've got it. Natural Philip Morris! Made by the people who bring you this column.

Golfers Take Fifth Straight

by Bill De La Vergne

• GEORGE WASHINGTON'S golf team extended their winning streak to five matches as they scored a 24-3 victory over the University of Richmond last Tuesday.

The victory is the third in the Southern Conference. The other two were over V.M.I. and William & Mary.

Jay Randolph shot a 75 on the par 71 Lakeside Country Club course in Richmond to lead the Colonials. Low man for Richmond was Ash Carlton with an 83.

Swimming Meet

• THE ALL-UNIVERSITY Women's swimming meet will be held Wednesday, from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at the Y.W.C.A., 17th and K Streets N.W. Participants can sign up for the meet in Building H or in the Student Union Annex.

Jay Randolph (G. W.) defeated Ash Carlton, 3-0; Bill Stover (Richmond) and Larry Spellman drew, 1½-1½; G. W. won best ball, 3-0.

Warren Krick (G. W.) defeated Bernard Showalter, 3-0; Joe Haney (G. W.) defeated Bob Cassidy, 3-0; G. W. won best ball, 3-0.

Vic Bartlett (G. W.) defeated Dick Eaton, 2½-2½; Irv Salem (G. W.) defeated A. J. Bollin, 3-0; G. W. won best ball, 2-1.

Paul Nordquist Stands Out As Sharpshooter

by Viris Cromer

• JUST AS THERE are many types of sports, so there are many types of outstanding athletes. For instance, George Washington has, in the last few years, produced some widely acclaimed basketball and football players.

But we've also some standouts in less spectacular but just as requiring sports, as is evidenced by rifleman Paul Nordquist.

In his three years at the University, Paul has amassed a number of honors, distinctions and awards which give him loud cry for consideration as one of the school's most outstanding riflemen of the last few years.

Places Fourth

Even as last week's HATCHET reported that he had placed fourth in the Sectional Championship for Mid-Atlantic States, Paul was preparing for the National Inter-collegiate championship sectional match (scores from the various regional matches are compiled by the NRA which then establishes rankings).

At this important event, held at the University of Maryland, the team placed near the top with an overall score of 1400, which excited Paul who considers that an "extremely good score" since "anything over 1400 is red hot."

Paul came away from College Park with some individual laurels, too. He was the individual champion with a score of 289 out of a possible 300. This is no feat for amateurs—the target is fifteen hundredths of an inch in diameter. No stranger to honors of this sort, Paul last year achieved a victory over the 1948 Olympic champ, Arthur Cook. Paul understandably considers this one of his greatest thrills in shooting. "It pleased me to no end," he admits.

Good Team

The team has, in his estimation, been doing well too. He considers the recent good showing at Maryland "head and shoulders above anything else." Nor is he pessimistic about the future state of shooting at GW. "Possibilities for the team are extremely good; the future looks very rosy," Paul says, basing his opinion on the return of several experienced marksmen next year. For that matter Paul sees no reason why he personally "should go down."

From Washington

A native of this city, Paul was born in Washington in 1936 and has lived most of his life in the general vicinity of this metropolis. Now living in Arlington, he is a graduate of W-L High school. Though he had shot before, he became "interested" in shooting his senior year in high school (there is no rifle team at W and L). He has altogether, been shooting seriously for 5 years, more or less for seven years.

At present a chemistry major who may "possibly" do graduate work, Paul is "not entirely sure" exactly what career he will follow. Not engaged in too many activities besides the Rifle Team and the Chemistry Club, Paul explains that, "when I'm not working on school work, I'm shooting."

Leibowitz, Bouquet Win Final Doubles To Give Buff Victory

• WHEN SAUL LIEBOWITZ AND JOHN BOUQUET won their hectic three-set doubles match late last Friday, the G. W. tennis team also won its fifth victory of the season by the slimmest of margins, 5-4, over Virginia.

It was a tough day, indeed, for the Colonial netmen who lost four of the six singles matches. The doubles combinations, however, known to be one of the strongest in the east, rallied to the call and staged a determined uphill battle to sweep the three remaining matches.

When play got under way at 2 p.m., balmy spring breezes played over the courts and seemed to indicate that as far as the elements were concerned, the conditions were favorable for tennis. But at the outset, it was quite obvious that these favorable conditions were all one-sided. For in almost every match, G. W. was hard-pressed.

Jack Tarr, hampered by poor service, was the first Colonial to taste defeat and lost in straight sets 1-6, 4-6. Jim Tarr, No. 1 singles player, exhibited his usual steady play. Although pressed in the first set, the Freshman star volleyed nicely and gave G. W. its first singles victory 7-5, 6-3. Then the tide turned as John Bouquet lost 4-6, 3-6. John Kaarid, who up to then had won five straight singles matches, was defeated in very close sets 5-7, 4-6. G. W. made a slight comeback when Saul Leibowitz survived a late rally and won 6-3, 7-5. Virginia led 3 matches to 2.

But the center of attention was focused on court five where Phil Dobyns was still playing his match. Although defeated 5-7 in the first set, Phil turned right around and drubbed his opponent 6-1 in the second. The Colonials needed this match to keep in contention. The former balmy breezes were now biting blasts that swirled around and made the ball do tricks. In any case, Dobyns lost a heart-breaker 4-6 and Virginia held a 4-2 lead.

By this time, however, the Tarr brothers had coasted to their sixth consecutive doubles victory by blasting out a 6-0, 6-2 win. Leibowitz and Kaarid also took the court for their doubles match and won the first set 6-2. When Bouquet and Dobyns had won their doubles match 6-3, 6-2, Leibowitz and Kaarid were losing their second set 4-6 and the score stood G.-W. 4, Virginia 4.

With the mercury dropping to the 40's, this crucial set, which would give either school victory, turned into an endurance contest. Leibowitz and Kaarid braved the cold and the wind and broke the service in the ninth game to take the set and match to everyone's delight.

The team's performance undoubtedly reflected the long lay-off resulting from cancellations with Georgetown, Richmond and W. & L. It should be remembered that this same Virginia Squad also lost to powerful Maryland by a 6-3 score.

Girl's Tennis Team Takes First Match

by Elva Lee Schroebel

• LED BY LORETTA LOWE, the girls' tennis team won its first match of the season last Thursday against Marjorie Webster, by a score of 4-1. The match was played on the East Potomac Courts.

Loretta Lowe, the area Intercollegiate tennis champion, won the number one singles with a score of 6-0, 6-0. Number two singles was won by Miriam Wilson, 6-3, 6-1, while Ellie Holt won the number three singles 6-4, 6-1.

The girls divided the two doubles matches with Barbara Baldauf and Elva Schroebel winning 6-4, 6-4 in the number one doubles and Pat Pierson and Shirley Smith dropping the number two 6-3, 7-5.

Sigma Nu Captures Ping Pong Tourney

• PING-PONG STOLE the spotlight from Intramural Softball as Sigma Nu won the team championship by rolling up a total of 84 points.

Dombeck of Theta Tau took the individual trophy as he won an exciting final match over Kaarid, independent. The scores of their three out of five game match were 17-21, 24-22, 7-21, 21-18 and 21-14.

Alpha Epsilon Pi and Phi Alpha, who were breathing down Delta Tau Delta's back in the red-hot Intramural race, tied for second place with identical scores of 78. AEPI scored all its points on 2-pointers, having no one in the finals nor having any man win a 5-pointer.

Theta Tau, aided by Dombeck, took third place with a total of 49 points.

Sigma Phi Epsilon remained undefeated in its bid for a second straight softball championship. The SPE's got passed their strongest opponent, AEPI, by a score of 8-2.

Bob Schmidt, SPE's mainstay, pitched a 2-hitter while striking out 8 men. The game was broken up in the fourth inning when Bob Moch slammed a triple with the bases loaded.

The SPE's remained undefeated by whipping Delta Tau Delta (b) 4-1. Jim Shifflet and Bob Moch drove in one run each in the first inning to give the Sig Eps their fourth straight win.

League A had a very sparse schedule with a total of two games being played out of a scheduled five.

The Med Sophs were on the losing end in both games as they were blasted by Sigma Chi 19-3 and by DTD (a) 20-4.

"Mighty Mite" Sullivan crashed a three-run homer to lead the Sigma Chi explosive 10-run first inning. Carl Zaleski knocked in two runs with a double to add to the route.

The Med Sophs pitchers had a lot of exercise Sunday in their first game. Peter Dyer was the batting star for the Deltas with 2 homers, a double and 2 singles as he knocked in nine runs. Bill Fisher had 5 singles and scored all 5 times he was on base.

The first two forfeits of the year were registered as the Wesleyans forfeited to Phi Alpha (a) and SAE.

Theta Tau shutout Tau Epsilon Phi and Delta Theta Phi to take the lead in League B. Phil Dobyns and S. Sullivan held DTPhi to one hit as the Engineers beat DTPhi 1-0.

The Engineers easily won their second game 6-0, with the help of Dobyns' 2-hitter.

League B results—Med Seniors 14-SAE 9.

Phi Sig played three games Sunday and beat PIKA (a), The Med. Frosh, and Kappa Sigma. PIKA was the best victim as they got crushed 32-1.

The other game scores weren't quite as bad. The Med Frosh were beaten 17-9, while Kappa Sig went down 12-6.

League B results—Phi Alpha (b) 12-Sigma Nu 3, Kappa Sig 19-Kappa Alpha 14, Sigma Nu 4-Kappa Alpha 2.

Nordquist Gets Silver Medal

• PAUL NORDQUIST TOOK the silver medal for first place in the National Rifle Association's National Intercollegiate Championships at the University of Maryland April 13.

The matches are held at 17 sectional locations throughout the country. The results of the nationwide contest will not be known for several weeks.

Nordquist shot a 289 to take first place at Maryland-U., while Knapp of the Naval Academy and Conklin of the University of West Virginia were second and third with scores of 288 and 287, respectively.

George Washington University sent three teams to the matches. The men's varsity fired their best score of the year as they rolled up a score of 1400 to put them in third place behind two University of Maryland teams who scored 1418 to 1408. Following G. W. were West Virginia U., Penn State, Navy, N. C. State and Catholic University.

Undefeated Buff Win Three On Road Trip

by Paul Truntich

• THE COLONIALS TOOK a big step toward repeating as Southern Conference champions when they swept all three league games on a road trip in Virginia last week end.

G. W. shut out Washington-Lee, 6-0; blasted V.M.I., 10-5, and thumped Virginia Tech, 10-4. A non-league game with Michigan was rained out on Monday. The Colonials now have an overall 6-0 record and are 3-0 in the conference.

Buff hurlers went the distance in each game, the best performance being turned in by George Bickerton who spun a neat two-hitter against W-L.

Also, for the first time this season, the Colonials unleashed a heavy hitting attack. They collected 26 runs on 35 hits in the three games.

Shortstop Sam Knisley led the parade with six hits in 10 times at bat while catcher Dick Giesler had five for nine. But it was Gino D'Ambrosio, smooth fielding outfielder, who turned in the best all-around performance.

D'Ambrosio rapped out eight hits in 16 appearances at the plate while driving home six runs in the three games. In addition Gino fielded flawlessly in left field, coming up with several good catches.

Thirdbaseman Jack Henzes also "found himself" on the road trip. Henzes hit .333 and fielded well in the field.

G. W. met W-L in Lexington, Va., in its conference opener, and behind the stylish pitching of Bickerton, the Buff took its first S. C. victory.

The fireballing righthander from Wilson High School held the Generals to only a pair of singles, one a scratch down the third base line. From the fourth inning on, Bickerton didn't give up a hit.

Slim Lead

The Colonials had a slim 2-0 lead going into the seventh inning before they scored three runs to ice the game. Bickerton started the rally by singling to right. After Henzes sacrificed him to second, D'Ambrosio drove in Bickerton with a line shot to center and went to second on the throw-in.

Ray Looney rifled another one-base knock to right to send Gino home, and Looney went to second on the throw home. Bo Austin scored Looney with a triple to right field to complete the inning.

Against V.M.I. the Buff fell behind by one run in the first inning but came back with a rush to easily win the game, 10-5. Left-hander Roger Turner went the distance, and struck out seven to capture his second victory.

G. W. scored three in the third to take the lead which it never gave up. Shortstop Sam Knisley hit a two-run single for the key blow. Knisley had five straight hits for the afternoon and six in the first two games.

D'Ambrosio and Looney each banged out three hits and Looney drove in three runs.

The Buff jumped to a quick two-run lead in the first inning against Virginia Tech and were never headed. Two singles, a walk and two errors by catcher John Sapon of V.P.I. did the trick.

D'Ambrosio continued his heavy hitting with four base knocks and three rbi's. Henzes stroked three hits and drove in four runs while Giesler got two hits.

Jack Arthur, freshman left-hander, went all the way to pick up his first triumph of the season. Arthur gave up only five hits and fanned nine.
